Dear Bert:

Well, hot-buddy, here I am writing you again. Everything is well and happy at home. I was home 3 weeks ago, and everything is swell. Mother and Daddy are fine, and thinking of you every hour and day. Daddy says he is going to fix youup a beautiful law office when you get back. I have a new portable typewriter and it don't work as good as your little Remington works. Daddy stillhas that little typewriter, and he put a new handle on it. Boy, he has that little store so full of junk, that you can hardly wald in it. He is using the half of the store next door as a storeroom. Corcle Moody was home last week, and he has a baby. He's down around Miami now.

Heard from Emma last week, and she is fine. She sure is anxious to hear about you. I am working pretty hard these days, and lost 13 pounds in the last 3 weeks because of a diet I'm on. I came from 211 to 198. I am still losing too. Lottie still has her job in B'ham, and really has a good onenow. Jimmie Cooper got hurt but is alright now. Buddy Block, Aunt Annie's grandson, is about 200 miles from here, but I haven't been able to see him as yet. Nelson is in California. Rosalie Krisch got married in Jan. in Texas., and not to me, darn it. I am glad she got what she wanted, a rich Lt.

That'a zabout all for now, so try and let us hear from you real soon.

Love,

Harold
